EVALUATION OF CONTENT

1. The Federacion Iberica de Juventudes Libertarias (Iberian Federation of Libertarian Youth), an organization founded in Madrid during the CNT National Congress of 1932 and continuing clandestinely after the rise of Franco, has an active counterpart in exile, operating from Toulouse. The whole organization is a suborganization of the CNT. The exterior branch was organized in Paris in the spring of 1945 at a congress of the Movimiento Libertario Espanol (Spanish Libertarian Movement).
2. Paralleling the split in the CNT into two groups - one sometimes referred to as the Leiva group, which collaborates with the Giral Government, and the other led by Germinal Eagles, which is anti-collaborationist - the FIJL has also split into two groups.
3. The non-collaborationist group, numbering approximately 8,000, is about twice the size of the collaborationist group, and operates from 25 Place Marengo, Toulouse, publishing a weekly paper, Ruta, which has a circulation of 6,000 copies. The Editor and Manager are, respectively, Benito Milla and Antonio Fernandez. The National Committee of this group is composed of the following:

Secretary General . . . . .	Ramon Parra
Propaganda and Press Secretary . . . . .	Francisco Martinez Marquez
Secretary of Relations . . . . .	Liberto Sarrau
Administrative Secretary . . . . .	Joaquina Dorado

its Regional Committee for Toulouse is composed of the following:

Secretary General . . . . .	Francisco Abella
Propaganda and Press Secretary . . . . .	Benito Perez
Secretary of Relations . . . . .	Jose Villalta
Administrative Secretary . . . . .	Angel Fernandez

The objective of this group is to mold youths from fifteen to thirty, culturally and ideologically, to the pattern of pure Spanish anarchism.

4. The Leiva group operates from 47 rue Jonquieres, Toulouse. It has no press organ but distributes Juventud Libre (Free Youth), a clandestine publication of the FIJL in Spain. Its National Committee officers are:

5. The FIJL in Spain is anxious to reconcile the whole youth movement, and in June 1946 sent Diego Bolanos to Toulouse as a delegate to the exterior movement with the aim of restoring unity. By late November, this had not been accomplished. With the aid of Diego Bolanos, the pro-government, or pro-Leiva, FIJL has constituted itself, in accord with directives of the National Committee in Spain, as the Subcomite Peninsular de la FIJL (Peninsular Subcommittee of the FIJL) in France.
